

SPDJ Will Be Celebrating July 4th a Little Early!

The Society for the Preservation of Dixieland Jazz will be celebrating the 4th of July a little early. But where else can you hear Traditional Dixieland Jazz music along with Traditional Patriotic songs? It will be a Red – White and Blue Day in Duarte! We will have guest performers that will be announced at a later date. And remember, there's dancing, a snack bar and so much fun!

When: Sunday, June 23rd

Where: Duarte Elks Lodge – 2436 Huntington Drive, Duarte, Ca

Time: 1:00 PM to 5:00 PM (Set up is at 12:30)

Did you hear? SPDJ officially has a web site! Thanks to Pattie Olson, we are finally able to be in the technology era! Check it out. It's still new, but it will provide you pertinent information and pictures regarding our club! And it will also have information and jazz articles from past Dixie Flyers too!
