HAPPY THANKSGIVING!!

REMINDER SPDJ will not be meeting in November. We will be back to our normal schedule on December 22nd

CHET JAEGER HONORED IN PISMO

Chet Jaeger, a Past President and founding member of SPDJ, was pictured on the front of this year's 'Jubilee by the Sea' festival program. Pictured with him is Pat Yankee.

This honor was bestowed by Basin Street Regulars, as they celebrated the 75th anniversary of D-Day. Chet and Pat are the Jazz Festival's most famous nonagenarian musicians, and were both awarded a framed painting by the same artist who created the cover for 2019 festival program. Congratulations to both Chet and Pat!

OUR MISSION

It is our hope that America's most important contribution to the world of music will continue to live on, and that today's youth will continue to honor the work, history and significance of Dixieland/Traditional Jazz, to today's and tomorrow's music. We will have succeeded if even one of today's youth continues to study American musical history, and help to preserve the importance and history of Dixieland/Traditional jazz.
